- (e) the type of profession or financial service for which the reporting entity is registered;
- (f) the date on which the licence or registration was issued, varied, suspended, or revoked;
- (g) the name and address of each reporting entity's agent; and
- (h) any conditions imposed on, or any exemptions granted to the reporting entity by the Commission.

(2) Where in the opinion of the Commission, the inclusion on the register of a condition imposed on or an exemption granted to a reporting entity by the Commission would be detrimental to the interest of the reporting entity, the Commission may waive the inclusion of such condition or exemption.

(3) The register may be kept in such format as the Commission deems fit and shall be maintained to permit inspection by the public.

Right of applicant to be heard if refusal is under contemplation.

41. (1) Where the Commission is considering the refusal of-

- (a) an application for registration;
- (b) a licence;
- (c) the grant of a licence subject to the attachment of a term, limitation or condition that is adverse to the applicant or is inconsistent with the terms of the application, the Commission shall inform the applicant accordingly.

(2) The Commission shall also inform the applicant-

- (a) that the applicant has a right to be heard; or
- (b) that the applicant may make written representations to the Commission, before the Commission makes a decision on the application.

(3) Oral or written representations under this Act shall be made by the applicant within thirty days of the date of being informed under sub-section (1).

(4) The Commission shall have regard to any representations made by the applicant before making its decision.

Where registration or licencing is not approved.

42.(1) Where the Commission does not approve of an application for registration or a licence, it shall inform the applicant of its decision and give reasons in writing, within twenty-one days of the date of its decision.

(2) Registration of a reporting entity shall not be approved if-

- (a) the reporting entity has been convicted of any offence under the Anti-Money Laundering/Countering the Financing of Terrorism Act or the Anti-Terrorism and Terrorist Related Activities Act;
- (b) the reporting entity has been convicted of any serious offence as listed in the Second Schedule of the Anti-money Laundering/Countering the Financing of Terrorism Act; or information necessary to enable that authority to exercise regulatory functions including the conduct of civil or administrative investigations and proceedings to enforce laws, regulations and rules administered by that authority, and includes international cooperation and exchange of information in relation to virtual assets, crypto assets, Virtual Asset Services Providers and any related matters.

Cap 15:05

(2) In deciding whether or not to exercise its power under subsection (1), the Commission may take into account to the provisions of the Mutual Legal Assistance in Criminal Matters Act, including-

- (a) whether the inquiries relate to the possible breach of a law or other requirement which has no close parallel in Guyana or involve the assertion of a jurisdiction not recognised by Guyana; and
- (b) the seriousness of the matter to which the inquiries relate and the importance to the inquiries of the information sought in Guyana.

(3) The Commission may decline to exercise its power under subsection (1) if the overseas regulatory authority fails to undertake to make such contribution towards the cost of the exercise as the Commission considers appropriate.

(4) Nothing in subsection (1) authorises a disclosure by the Commission unless the Commission —

- (a) has satisfied itself that the intended recipient authority is subject to adequate legal restrictions on further disclosures which shall include the provision of an undertaking of confidentiality;

- (b) has been given an undertaking by the recipient authority not to disclose the information provided without the consent of the Commission;
- (c) is satisfied that the assistance requested by the overseas regulatory authority is required for the purposes of the overseas regulatory authority's regulatory functions including the conduct of civil or administrative investigations or proceedings to enforce laws, regulations and rules administered by that authority; and
- (d) is satisfied that information provided following the exercise of its power under subsection (3) will not be used in criminal proceedings against the person providing the information.

(5) Where in the opinion of the Commission, it appears necessary in relation to any request for assistance received from an overseas regulatory authority, to invoke the jurisdiction of any court in obtaining information requested by the overseas regulatory authority, the Commission shall —

- (a) immediately notify the Attorney-General and the Minister of Home Affairs with particulars of the request; and
- (b) send the Attorney-General copies or all documents relating to the request, and the Attorney-General shall be entitled, in a manner analogous to amicus curiae, to appear or take part in any proceedings in Guyana, or in any appeal from such proceedings, arising directly or indirectly from any such request.

(6) The Commission may cooperate with any other supervisory authority, regulatory authority, Financial Intelligence Unit, competent authority, Ministry, Agency, or relevant competent authority in Guyana, including the sharing of information that it has acquired in the course of its duties or in the exercise of its functions under this or any other law where it considers such cooperation or information may be relevant to the function of such other regulatory authority or as a necessary part of a framework for consolidated supervision, oversight or regulation its reporting entities, and includes international cooperation and exchange of information in relation to virtual assets, crypto assets, Virtual Asset Services Providers and any related matters.

(7) It is an offence for a person who knows or suspects that a suspicious transaction report or related information is reported to the Financial Intelligence Unit, or that an investigation into money laundering, terrorist financing or the proceeds of crime has been, is being or is about to be made, to divulge that fact or other information to another whereby the investigation is likely to be prejudiced.

(8) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one million dollars and to imprisonment for three years.
